

CONSUL DYE QUITS OFFICE

American Diplomat to Mexico for Three Years to Become Secretary to Walter Douglas

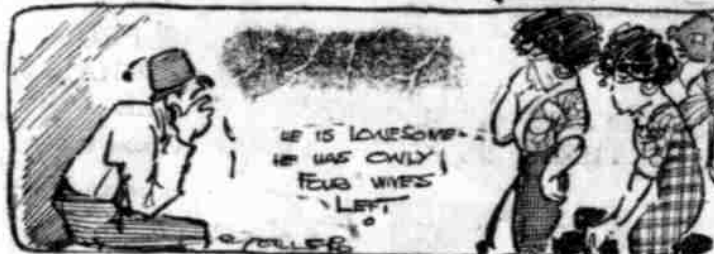

HEADQUARTERS HERE

Alexander V. Dye, American Consul to Mexico for the past three years, with headquarters at Nogales, Sonora, has forwarded his resignation to the state department at Washington, to take effect November 1. Dr. Dye will associate himself, as soon as relieved, with the Phelps-Dodge company as assistant to Walter Douglas, general manager for the company, with headquarters in Bisbee.

His resignation as the diplomatic representative of the American government in northern Sonora will be deeply regretted by all those who have come into contact with him in the discharge of his consular and social duties. During the present trouble in Mexico Mr. Dye has made his headquarters in Douglas for the past several months, that city being regarded as the key to the situation to the south. During his stay in Douglas he has been thoroughly in touch with all movements, never hesitating to act when the occasion demanded.

Consul Dye is a native of Missouri, and started his career as a newspaperman, later writing special articles gathered on trips through the middle west states. He was later connected with the Simmons Hardware company in St. Louis. He is a graduate of the William Jewell college at Liberty, Mo., there taking his A. B. and A. M. degrees. He later attended the University of Chicago, going from there to Leipzig, Germany, where he graduated as a doctor of philosophy. Being tendered the position of head of the modern language department at William Jewell college, he returned to that country. After four years at the head of that department he resigned to accept the appointment as American consul at Nogales.

WITH ONLY FOUR WIVES LEFT, POOR OLD ABDUL HAMID LEADS SIMPLE LIFE

Abdul Hamid and some of his diversions.

If you have any pity or sympathy to spare, by all means give it to poor old Abdul Hamid, one-time sultan of Turkey, who was driven from his throne and is now in retirement. Don't pity him for being no longer ruler of Turkey. He deserves congratulations for that. But feel sorry for him because of the vast collection of wives which he once had, but four now remain to comfort him in his old age. Abdul is living quietly now, and has become an exponent of the simple life. Probably because it's the least expensive. He whittles away his time working in a carpenter shop, and smokes for hours together in his garden.

PROHIBITION PARTY TO SING AND SPEAK

Red Ribbon Candidates Will Be in Bisbee November 1.

The campaign of the Prohibition party in this state will have a feature not possessed by the campaigns of the other three parties. It will not be a political "song and dance" but the next thing to it, a political "song and speech."

Eugene N. Chaffin, prohibition candidate for president of the United States, and Captain Charles H. Stanley, a noted campaign singer, will be in Bisbee, Friday, November 1, speaking in the post office plaza at 1 o'clock. That is the scheduled place of the speaking but it will have to be changed as no political speaking are allowed on the street. All speeches will be made from the Prohibition automobile and it will be an easy matter to drive the machine onto the street.

CASEY MURDER CASE CONTINUED SIX WEEKS

Man Accused of Slaying Brother-in-Law Will Be Tried in December

EL PASO, Oct. 23.—Judge Jackson has granted a continuance in the case of John P. Casey, Jr., who stands accused of slaying W. J. Amberson, his brother-in-law, in this city last summer. The plea for delay was heard Monday and the court took the case under advisement until later.

Monday afternoon Sheriff Peyton J. Edwards, his chief deputy, Stanley Good and deputies Jere Dulose and Stanley Good Jr., were placed on the stand to testify relative to the diligence that had been used in attending to the case of a subpoena on Jack Parker, a witness for the defense, and because of whose absence the defense had asked for a continuance. The officers detailed the efforts that had been made by them in trying to find the witness.

According to the ruling of Judge Jackson, the Casey case will now go over to the December term of the court.

Justifiable.

"Why, it is a nasty old photo. It's not like me. I am better looking than that," said a woman at Lambeth who, when charged with disorderly conduct, handed the magistrate her photograph to look at. "Look at that," she said, indignantly, "and see if you wouldn't swear if you were took like that."

Perhaps.

A Boston minister has jumped into the spotlight by making the statement that American women wear too many clothes at summer resorts. This is the last objection we expected a minister to make. Perhaps the women whom he observed are inclined to be a little more than a covering. If you want to carry a convincing suggestion of respect, our famous Chicago tailors.

WOMEN TO VOTE IN SIX STATES

Progressives Try to Use So-Called Initiative to Show They Were First for Equal Rights

CALIFORNIA LEADING

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—In the general election two weeks from today women will vote in six States, California, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah, a fact which campaign managers of the various parties have taken into consideration. While the progressive party was the only one of the three leading political organizations to give its official stamp of approval to the equal suffrage movement, the republican and democratic leaders have shown their appreciation of the importance of that movement by enlisting the services of women workers with an eye to the result of the six states in which women have been granted the full rights of the franchise. Those six states have a total representation in the electoral college of 38 votes, divided as follows: California 13, Colorado 7, Idaho 4, Utah 4, Washington 7, Wyoming 3.

According to the last census California has a total of 671,386 women eligible to vote. In the other five states the figures are as follows: Colorado, 212,425; Utah, 85,729; Washington, 277,727; Idaho, 69,813; Wyoming, 28,840.

That the choice of a president and vice-president of the United States in the coming election may depend upon the votes of the women in the six states named is easily within the range of possibilities. To prove the truth of this statement it is but necessary to cite the fact that six presidents of the United States were elected by a smaller number of votes than those which women suffrage states will control in the next electoral college.

Majorities Were Small.

Statistics show that Presidents Adams, Jefferson, John Quincy Adams, Taylor, Hayes and Cleveland were elected by a majority of thirty-seven votes or less. In 1796 John Adams defeated Thomas Jefferson by two votes. In 1890 Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr each received 173 votes. The choice of the president on the house of representatives, with the result that Jefferson was elected.

In 1824 none of the candidates for president received enough electoral votes to elect, and the choice again devolved upon the house of representatives, when John Quincy Adams was chosen. In 1849 Zachary Taylor defeated Lewis Cass by just thirty-six votes. In 1876 Rutherford B. Hayes defeated Samuel J. Tilden by one vote, and in 1881 Grover Cleveland defeated James G. Blaine by thirty-seven votes.

In addition to the six states in which women have been given the right to vote for president there are numerous other states in which they have the rights of limited suffrage. In fact, there are in the United States today only nineteen states which have no form of suffrage for women, and even in some of those there are cities in which women have the right to vote for school-officials and on tax matters. The nineteen states are Nevada, Texas, Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Maine.

Kentucky Many Vote Women.

Kentucky already has felt the entering wedge and before the presidential election in 1916 it is very likely that half a dozen or more states will have adopted woman suffrage. In addition to the six now on the roll, the election two weeks from today the voters of Oregon, Kansas, Michigan, Wisconsin and Arizona will vote on the adoption of constitutional amendments granting the full rights of suffrage to women. The equal suffrage leaders are confident that out of these five states some are bound to slip through in spite of all the opponents can do, and a good many thousand voters of the "weak" sex will be added to the present million and a quarter after November 5.

So far the equal suffrage cause has scored its greatest victories in the far west. No state in the east or south has yet granted to women the full suffrage rights. In Ohio, where a vote on the matter was taken this summer, the cause was defeated. It is believed, and not without reason, that the result in the Buckeye state will influence the vote soon to be taken in Michigan and Wisconsin. In Wisconsin the suffragists are fighting hard and have strong hopes of success. "It is generally conceded, however, that Kansas is more likely to adopt the amendment than is any of the other states in which the matter is to be voted on next month."

The woman suffrage movement has made less of an impression on the old south, so far as practical results are concerned, than on any other section of the country. But even here the agitation is beginning to be felt, and it is not improbable that the suffragists will include Louisiana, Georgia and one or two others in the list of "campaign states" within another year or two.

MAKE OFFICER OF VICTIM OF THEFT

City Marshal Bassett Watkins has solved the question of apprehending petty criminals at a minimum of expense for the city. He has conceived the idea of deputizing the wronged party or victim, and putting him on the trail of the offender. Many criminals are allowed to escape because of the great expense of sending officers after them into other states and the county may adopt the plan that has been invented by City Marshal Watkins.

A man named Sam Holmes, for whose arrest a warrant was issued by Judge High several days ago, has been arrested at Tucson by J. H. Chapple, who was deputized by the city marshal as a special officer to pursue and arrest Holmes. It is said that Chapple and Holmes roomed together here and that Monday afternoon Holmes gathered up Chapple's personal belongings, packed the man in a telephone and left town.

Chapple says that he was deputized by the chief of police here to look for and arrest Holmes. He followed the man to Douglas and thence to Tucson, where the arrest was made. Two tickets have been forwarded to Chapple who will bring Holmes back to Bisbee for trial.
